

The purpose of this document is to provide information on 28Forex policy on conflicts of interest and its approach to managing any conflicts of interest fairly: both between 28Forex our directors, employees and our clients, and between your interests and those of other clients.

Definition of Conflict of Interest

The Company defines a conflict of interest as any situation where either the Company or an individual is in a position to exploit a professional or official capacity in some way for either corporate or personal benefit.

Conflict of Interest Measures

Extensive measures have been adopted by the Company for ensuring the requisite degree of independence and manage actual and potential conflicts of interest in the course of its business that pose a material risk to clients' interests.

Disclosure of conflict of interest

When the measures taken by the Company to manage conflicts of interest are not sufficient to ensure, with reasonable confidence, the Company will disclose the conflicts of interest to the client in order to prevent a risk of damage to clients' interests. Prior to carrying out a transaction or providing an investment or an ancillary service to a client, the Company must disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest. The disclosure will be in sufficient time, in a durable means.

Record keeping

The Company maintains a record, which is regularly updated, of the kinds of investment and ancillary service or investment activity carried out by the Company or on its behalf in which a conflict of interest entailing a material risk of damage to the interests of one or more clients has arisen.

Senior Management is responsible for ensuring that the Company's systems, controls and procedures are adequate to identify and manage conflicts of interest. It also ensures that all the arrangements made under this policy operate effectively.

The Company reserves the right to amend or modify this policy at any time without prior notice.
